

Acts Passport Rubric

Name: _____ Date: _____

	4	3	2	1
Accuracy	All facts and details match the story of Paul's missionary journey as told in Acts of the Apostles.	There is one mistake. The facts and details do not exactly match the story of Paul's missionary journey.	There are 2-3 mistakes. The facts and details do not exactly match the story of Paul's missionary journey.	There are more than three mistakes. The facts and details do not match the story of Paul's missionary journey.
Sequencing	All of the stories and cities follow the order of the Bible.	There is one mistake in the order of cities or events.	There are 2-3 mistakes. The cities or events are not in the correct order.	There are more than three mistakes.
Creativity	The student used a large amount of creativity in designing the passport. The passport has a good amount of color and artwork.	The student used some creativity in designing the passport. There is some color or artwork.	The student used some creativity in designing the passport. The passport is missing color or artwork.	The student used little creativity in designing the passport. The passport is missing color or artwork.
Neatness Mechanics	This is obviously the student's best work. There are no distracting or messy areas. There are no spelling or grammar errors.	This is obviously good work from the student. There may be 1 or 2 distracting or messy areas or 1-2 spelling or grammar errors.	The student could have taken more time. There are 3 or 4 distracting or messy areas or spelling and grammar errors.	This is not the student's best work. There are many distracting or messy areas or grammar errors
Use of class time	The student used class time wisely and was never off task or distracting to others.	The student used class time well, but was off task. The student never distracted others.	The student was distracting to others but stayed on task.	The student was off task and distracting to others more than once during the project.